GENERAL OPERATING BY-LAW NO. 1A

A By-law relating generally to the conduct of the affairs of

ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL GEOSCIENTISTS OF ONTARIO
(the “Corporation”)

WHEREAS the Corporation was incorporated under section 27 of the Ontario Professional Geoscientists Act, 2000, S.O. 2000, c. 13 under the name “Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario” in English and “Ordre des géoscientifiques professionnels de l’Ontario” in French;

AND WHEREAS By-law No. 1 relating to the administrative and domestic affairs of the Corporation was approved by Council on September 8, 2000, and was amended on September 7, 2001, October 16, 2001 and June 14, 2012;

AND WHEREAS it is determined necessary to replace By-law No. 1 with General Operating By-law No. 1A herein;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED that the following By-law be enacted as the General Operating By-law of the Corporation as follows:

SECTION I INTERPRETATION

1.01 Definitions

In this By-law and all other By-laws and resolutions of the Corporation, unless the context otherwise requires:<sup>1</sup>

- (a) “Act” means the Ontario Professional Geoscientists Act, 2000, S.O. 2000, c. 13, including any Regulations made pursuant thereto, and any statute or regulations substituted therefor, as amended from time to time.
- (b) “By-laws” means this by-law and all other by-laws of the Corporation as amended and which are, from time to time, in force and effect.
- (c) “Corporation” means the legal entity incorporated as a corporation without share capital under section 27 of the Ontario Professional Geoscientists Act, 2000, S.O. 2000, c. 13 under the name “Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario” in English and “Ordre des géoscientifiques professionnels de l’Ontario” in French.
- (d) “Council” means the council of the Corporation;
- (e) “Councillor” means a member of the Council.
- (f) “Executive Director” means the executive director who shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and may carry the title of Chief Executive Officer.
- (g) “Member” means a member of the Corporation and “Members” or “Membership” means the collective membership of the Corporation.
- (h) “Minister” means the minister responsible for the administration of the Act.
- (i) “Officer” means an officer of the Corporation.
- (j) “Regulations” means regulations made under the Act.

Commented [PC1]: Inserted to reflect current arrangements.

1.02 Interpretation

In the interpretation of this By-law, unless the context otherwise requires, the following rules shall apply:<sup>2</sup>

- (a) except where specifically defined herein, all terms contained herein and which are defined in the Act shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Act;
- (b) words importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa;
- (c) the word “person” shall include an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, unincorporated association, unincorporated syndicate, unincorporated organization, trust, body corporate, and a natural person in his capacity as trustee, executor, administrator, or other legal representative;
- (d) words importing the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter genders;
- (e) the headings used in the By-laws are inserted for reference purposes only and are not to be considered or taken into account in construing the terms or provisions thereof or to be deemed in any way to clarify, modify or explain the effect of any such terms or provisions;
- (f) if any of the provisions contained in the By-laws are inconsistent with those contained in the Act, the Regulations, the provisions contained in those documents as the case may be, shall prevail.

SECTION II COUNCILLORS

2.01 Powers

Pursuant to the Act, the Council shall manage the affairs of the Corporation.

2.02 Duties of Councillors

- (a) All Councillors shall comply with the provisions of the Act, the Regulations and the By-laws and shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of their offices honestly in good faith and in furtherance of the objects of the Corporation in order that the public interest may be served and protected. All Councillors shall:<sup>3</sup>
  - (i) endeavour to take part in the committee work of the Corporation and serve actively during their terms of office on any committees to which they have been appointed;
  - (ii) endeavour to take part in regional affairs including appearance before regional meetings during their terms of office as a panelist, speaker or representative of Council;
  - (iii) endeavour to be present at and participate in the annual meeting of the Members of the Corporation;
  - (iv) perform such duties on behalf of the officers of the Corporation as may be requested, including attendance at local functions as representatives of the Corporation;
  - (v) ensure that confidential matters coming to their attention as Councillors are not disclosed by them except as required for the performance of their duties or as may be directed by Council or by the president; and
  - (vi) disclose any interest they may have, other than as Councillors, in any matter coming before Council and shall not be counted in the quorum in respect of such matter.

- (b) All elected Councillors and all appointed Councillors shall familiarize themselves with the Act, the Regulations and the By-laws with such other records and documents as may be necessary as background knowledge for the purpose of performance of the duties of their office.<sup>4</sup>

2.03 Number and Composition

- (a) Pursuant to the Act, the Council shall be composed of twenty (20) Councillors, as follows:<sup>5</sup>
- (i) Three (3) Councillors by virtue of their office (“Ex Officio Councillors”) who must be Members of the Corporation:
    - (1) the president, ex officio;
    - (2) the vice-president, ex officio;
    - (3) the past president, ex officio;
  - (ii) Three (3) Councillors appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council (“LGC Councillors”):

SECTION III MEETINGS OF COUNCIL

3.01 Place of Meetings

Meetings of the Council may be held at the head office of the Corporation or at any other place in Ontario as the Council may determine. For greater certainty, a Council meeting may be held by telephonic or electronic means as set out in Section 3.06.

Commented [PC4]: Allows now for virtual meetings without legal uncertainty..

3.02 Calling of Meetings

Meetings of the Council may be called by the president, the vice-president, the Executive Committee, or any three (3) Councillors at any time.<sup>22</sup>

3.03 Notice of Meeting

Notice of the meetings of Council shall be given by the Executive Director or such person as shall be authorized for such purpose by Council on the direction of the president or the Executive Committee. Notice shall be delivered or mailed or sent by other form of telecommunication to each Councillor not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is to take place. The notice shall include the text of any motion(s) and supplementary material. No formal notice of any such meeting shall be necessary if all Councillors are present or if those absent have consented in writing (delivered or mailed or sent by other form of telecommunication) to the meeting being held.<sup>23</sup> Notice of an adjourned meeting is not required if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting.

3.04 Regular Meetings

There shall be not less than four meetings of Council in each year.<sup>24</sup> The Council may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular Council meetings at a place and hour to be named.

3.05 Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business at any Council meeting shall be a majority of the Councillors then in office. Only those Councillors present in person, by telephone or electronically shall be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present.

3.06 Meeting by Telephone or Electronic Means

- (a) A Councillor may participate in a Council meeting by means of a telephonic or electronic means that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. A Councillor participating in the meeting by such means shall be deemed to have been present at that meeting.
- (b) If all the Councillors present at or participating in the meeting consent, a Council meeting may be held by means of a telephonic or electronic means that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting.

3.07 Chair of Meetings

The chair of Council meetings shall be the president, or the vice-president if the president is absent or unable to act. In the event that the president and the vice-president are absent, the Councillors who are present shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

3.08 Votes to Govern

Each Councillor may exercise one (1) vote. At all Council meetings, every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the question. The chair of the meeting may not vote, except in case of an equality of votes, in which case the chair shall have a casting vote.

Commented [PC5]: Enshrines the existing convention that the Chair only votes in case of a tie.

3.09 Persons Entitled to be Present at Council Meetings

- (a) Persons entitled to be present at a Council meeting shall be Councillors, and such other persons who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act, the Regulations, or By-laws of the Corporation to be present at the meeting. Other persons may be admitted on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or by resolution of the Council.
- (b) Notwithstanding the above, all Council meetings shall be open to Members and the public except as provided for in this Section, the Act and Regulations.<sup>25</sup>
- (c) The chair of a meeting may expel any person for improper conduct at a meeting.<sup>26</sup>
- (d) The Council meeting or part of a Council meeting may be declared closed to the Members and/or the public by the chair of the meeting at his or her discretion if the subject matter being considered concerns any of the following:<sup>27</sup>
  - (i) the security of the property of the Corporation;
  - (ii) personal matters about an identifiable individual;
  - (iii) the proposed or pending acquisition of assets by the Corporation;
  - (iv) labour relations or employee negotiations;
  - (v) litigation or potential litigation, including matters before administrative tribunals affecting the Corporation or a Member;
  - (vi) the receiving of advice that is subject to solicitor-client privilege, including communications necessary for that purpose; or
  - (vii) any other matter which Council determines.
- (e) Before holding a Council meeting or part of a Council meeting that is to be declared closed to the Members and/or the public, the Council shall state by resolution the fact of the holding of the closed meeting or part of the meeting.<sup>28</sup>

Commented [PC6]: Bourinot's Rules of Order provide a check and balance on this power such that Council may overturn a Chair's ruling.

3.10 Petition for Discussion at Council Meetings

- (a) Any matter may be brought forward for discussion at Council meetings on written petition signed by not less than twenty (20) practising, temporary or limited Members whose registration has not been suspended.<sup>29</sup>
- (b) The written petition shall be delivered to the Executive Director or the Secretary of the Corporation, together with a copy of the motion(s) to be presented at the meeting. The matter contained in the petition shall be brought

forward at the next Council meeting if the petition was received prior to the notice for Council meeting has been sent. If a petition is received after notice for a Council meeting has been sent, the Council may bring forward the matter at that Council meeting or the following Council meeting.

3.11 Irregularities

The transactions of Council or of any committee are valid notwithstanding the disqualification of Councillors through any defect or irregularity in their election or appointment.<sup>30</sup>

SECTION IV MEMBERS

4.01 Membership Matters

Membership matters (including classification, registration, application, fees and dues, suspension, revocation; appeal, complaints and discipline) are governed in accordance with the Act, Regulations, and applicable By-laws and policies of the Corporation.

SECTION V MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

5.01 Meeting of Members

A “meeting of Members” or “Members’ meetings” shall include an annual meeting of Members and a special meeting of Members.

5.02 Annual Meetings

An annual meeting of Members shall be held at such time in each year, as the Council may from time to time determine, provided that the annual meeting must be held not later than six (6) months after the end of the Corporation’s preceding financial year. The annual meeting shall be held for the purpose of considering the financial statements and reports of the Corporation, appointing the auditor, considering reports from Council and from committees, and transacting such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting or is required under the Act.<sup>31</sup>

5.03 Special Meetings

- (a) The Council may at any time call a special meeting of Members for the transaction of any business which may properly be brought before the Members as determined by Council.<sup>32</sup>
- (b) The Council shall call a special general meeting of Members on written requisition signed by not less than fifty (50) practising, temporary or limited Members whose registration has not been suspended. The written requisition shall be delivered to the Executive Director or the Secretary of the Corporation, together with a copy of the motion(s) to be presented at the meeting. The special meeting shall be called not more than sixty (60) days after the written requisition is received by the Executive Director.<sup>33</sup>

Commented [PC7]: Number adjusted.

5.04 Place of Meetings

Meetings of Members may be held at any place within Ontario as the Council may determine.<sup>34</sup> For greater certainty, a Council meeting may be held by telephonic or electronic means as set out in Section 5.08.

Commented [PC8]: Allows for virtual meetings now.

5.05 Notice of Meetings

- (a) Notice of the time, place and purpose of an annual meeting of Members shall be given by the Executive Director, or such person as shall be authorized for such purpose by Council, on the direction of Council. Notice of such meeting shall be sent to each Member whose registration has not been suspended by mail or by electronic means at least ~~thirty~~ (30) days but not more than 90 days before the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, or by publishing the notice of the meeting in the official publication of the Corporation, a copy of which shall be sent by mail or by electronic means to each Member whose registration has not been suspended at least thirty (30) days but not more than ninety (90) days before the time fixed for the meeting.<sup>35</sup>
- (b) Notice of the time, place and purpose of a special meeting of Members shall be distributed in writing to all Members whose registration has not been suspended, either by mail or by electronic means in an official publication of the Corporation sent at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the meeting. Notice of a special meeting of Members shall state the nature of that business and no other business shall be transacted at the meeting.<sup>36</sup>
- (c) All notices required to be given to Members shall be deemed to have been regularly given if mailed, postage prepaid, addressed to each Member at the last address appearing on the register at the time of such mailing or delivered by electronic means addressed to each Member at the email address on file at the time of such mailing.<sup>37</sup>
- (d) A statutory declaration by the Executive Director or by any person acting on behalf of the Executive Director shall be conclusive evidence of the notification of meetings to the Members.<sup>38</sup>
- (e) A Member and any other person entitled to attend a meeting of Members may in any manner and at any time waive notice of a meeting of Members, and attendance of any such person at a meeting of Members is a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where such person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

Commented [PC9]: Adjusted up from 10 to give members more notice time.

5.06 Chair of Meetings

The chair of Members' meetings shall be the president, or the vice-president if the president is absent or unable to act. In the event that the president and the vice-president are absent, the Members shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

5.07 Quorum

A quorum at any meeting of the Members shall be sixteen (16) ~~practising, non-practising, temporary and limited Members~~ whose registration has not been suspended. If quorum has not been achieved within one hour of the scheduled commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be terminated. If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting of Members, the Members present may proceed with the business of the meeting even if a quorum is not present throughout the meeting. For the purpose of determining quorum, a Member may be present in person, by proxy or, by telephonic or electronic means.<sup>39</sup>

Commented [PC10]: Adjusted upward from no practical requirement.

Commented [PC11]: Non-practising members now have limited rights, including to vote and be counted in quorum at members' meetings / ballots.

meeting may participate in the meeting by such means. A person participating in a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

- (b) The Council may determine that a meeting of Members be held entirely by means of a telephonic or electronic means that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting.

5.09 Proxy Voting

- (a) Every Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members may appoint a proxyholder, or one or more alternate proxyholders, who must be a Member of the Corporation, to attend and act at the meeting in the manner and to the extent and with the authority conferred by the proxy.
- (b) The Council may fix a time not exceeding 24 hours, excluding Saturdays and holidays, before any meeting or continuance of an adjourned meeting of the Members before which time proxies to be used at that meeting must be deposited with the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation, and any period of time so fixed must be specified in the notice calling the meeting.<sup>40</sup>

Each practising, non-practising, temporary and limited Member whose registration has not been suspended is eligible to cast one (1) vote. At all meetings of the Members, every question shall be determined on a show of hands by a majority of votes cast unless otherwise specifically provided by the Act, Regulations, or by By-laws.<sup>41</sup> The chair of the meeting may not vote, except in case of an equality of votes, in which case the chair shall have a casting vote.

5.11 Show of Hands

Subject to the Act, the Regulations, and the By-laws, except where a ballot is demanded, voting on any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of Members shall be by show of hands, and a declaration by the chair of the meeting as to whether or not the question or motion has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the motion.

5.12 Ballots

For any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of Members, either before or after a vote by show of hands has been taken, the chair of the meeting, or any Member or proxyholder may demand a ballot, in which case the ballot shall be taken in such manner as the chair directs and the decision of the Members on the question shall be determined by the result of such ballot.

5.13 Persons Entitled to be Present

- (a) Persons entitled to be present at a meeting of Members shall be those entitled to vote at the meeting, the Councillors, and the auditor of the Corporation, and such other persons who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act, the Regulations, or By-laws of the Corporation to be present at the meeting. Other persons may be admitted on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or by resolution of the Members.
- (b) Notwithstanding the above, meetings of Members shall be open to the public except as provided for in this Section, the Act and Regulations. A meeting of Members or part of a meeting of Members may be declared closed to the public by the chair of the meeting at his or her discretion or upon motion by the Members.

Commented [PC12]: Made clear, as befits an organization mandated to ensure public safety.

5.14 Adjournment

The chair of any meeting of Members may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the same from time to time to a fixed time and place and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the Members. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at any adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

5.15 Voting by Ballots In Lieu of Meeting

- (a) Council may direct that a Membership vote by ballot, either by mail or electronically, may be conducted on any matter related to the Corporation.<sup>42</sup>
- (b) Notice of a vote by ballot may be given either by mail or electronically and shall provide full details of the matter to be voted upon and shall be sent to all Members at least thirty (30) days in advance of the vote being taken. If at least thirty (30) Members of the Corporation object to the vote by ballot in writing to the Registrar at least 3 days before the announced date of the vote, the matter shall be held over to be decided at a meeting of the Members.
- (c) At least ten (10) days prior to the date of the close of ballots, the Executive Director shall appoint two scrutineers who shall be selected from practising, non-practising, temporary or limited Members of the Corporation. The method for counting ballots shall be that approved by Council and kept on file in the office of the Corporation. The scrutineers shall count the votes.
- (d) Each practising, temporary and limited Member whose registration has not been suspended is eligible to cast one (1) vote. In case of equality of results of ballot, the president, or in the absence of the president, the vice-president shall cast the deciding vote. For greater certainty, the president or vice-president who has the right to cast the deciding vote may not vote at the first instance in the balloting, except in case of an equality of votes, in which case the person shall have a casting vote.
- (e) The scrutineers shall provide a report of the results of the voting to the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall retain the ballots (or in the case of electronic ballots, the electronic evidence thereof) for a period of thirty (30) days following the next regular meeting of Council, after which they shall be destroyed.
- (f) A vote by ballot shall be declared valid at the date of close of ballots if at least 10 percent (10%) of the practising, non-practising, temporary and limited Members respond and the matter shall be declared carried or defeated on the basis of a simple majority of the ballots returned.
- (g) The results of a vote by ballot shall be considered by Council at its next regular meeting.

SECTION VI OTHER MEETING MATTERS

6.01 Minutes and Evidence of Proceedings

- (a) The Corporation shall cause minutes of all proceedings at meetings of Members and of Council to be entered in books kept for that purpose.<sup>43</sup>
- (b) The minutes of all proceedings at meetings of Members and of Council shall be kept at the head office of the Corporation and shall be open to inspection by all practising, non-practising, temporary and limited Members during normal business hours.<sup>44</sup>

- (c) In the absence of proof to the contrary, minutes of any meeting of Members or of Council or of a committee purporting to be signed by the president or the vice-president and by the Executive Director or such person as shall be authorized for such purpose by Council or, in the case of a committee, by the committee chair shall be deemed to be a correct record of the proceedings of the meeting, and the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly called, constituted and held and all proceedings had thereat to have been duly had and all appointments made thereat shall be deemed to have been duly made.<sup>45</sup>

6.02 Computation of Time

Where a given number of days' notice or notice extending over a period is required to be given under the By-laws, the day of service, posting or other delivery of the notice shall not, unless it is otherwise provided, be counted in such number of days or other period.

6.03 Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any Member, Councillor, member of a committee of the Council or auditor, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person where the Corporation has provided notice in accordance with the By-laws or any error in any notice not affecting its substance shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting to which the notice pertained or otherwise founded on such notice.<sup>46</sup>

6.04 Waiver of Notice

Any Member, proxyholder, Councillor, member of a committee of the Council or auditor may waive or abridge the time for any notice required to be given to such person, and such waiver or abridgement, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given shall cure any default in the giving or in the time of such notice, as the case may be. Any such waiver or abridgement shall be in writing except a waiver of notice of a meeting of Members or of the Council or of a committee of the Council, which may be given in any manner.

6.05 Rules of Order for Meetings

- (a) The procedure at all meetings of Members and of Council which have not been provided for in the Act, the Regulations, or the By-laws shall be governed by the rules laid down in Bourinot's Rules of Order (most recent edition) except as required by law and except as amended by the By-laws of the Corporation. These rules may be amended by Council with respect to meetings of Council and committees of Council by passing Special Rules of Order to supersede Bourinot's Rules of Order. No action of the Members or of Council or its committees shall be invalid by reason only of an inadvertent failure to adhere to such rules.<sup>47</sup>
- (b) Special Rules of Order or any amendments to Bourinot's Rules of Order shall remain in effect at meetings of Members, Council and its committees from the time and date of their enactment until such time as they are duly rescinded. Special Rules of Order enacted at the annual general meeting of the Members shall remain in effect until the close of business at that meeting.
- (c) At the first meeting of Council following the annual general meeting of the Members, all Special Rules of Order which were in force immediately before the close of business of the annual general meeting of the Members shall be presented to Council and Council may adopt or amend any part of all of those Special Rules of Order.

SECTION VII OFFICERS

7.01 Officer Positions

The officers of the Corporation shall be the president, vice-president, past president, secretary, treasurer, and Executive Director.

7.02 Qualifications, Election, Appointment and Term

- (a) All officers shall be Councillors, except the Executive Director.
- (b) The president, vice-president and past president shall be elected by the Members to hold a one (1) year term in accordance with Section 2.05(a).
- (c) The Chair of the Governance Committee appointed by the Council from among the Councillors shall serve as secretary. The Council shall appoint a Councillor to serve as treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall serve a one (1) year term until the first Council meeting immediately following the annual meeting of the Members. The Council may remove, whether for cause or without cause, secretary and treasurer of the Corporation. Unless so removed, the secretary and treasurer shall hold office until the earlier of the expiry of the person's term of office, the successor is appointed, the person resigns, the person ceases to be a Councillor, or the person dies. If the office of the secretary or treasurer shall be or become vacant, the Council may appoint another Councillor to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term. The maximum number of consecutive terms for secretary and treasurer is three (3) terms of one (1) year. Upon the completion of the maximum term, a minimum of a one (1) year absence is required before eligibility for re-appointment to be a secretary or treasurer.
- (d) The Executive Director shall serve at the discretion of the Council.
- (e) The duties of the officers shall be designated by the Council from time to time. The Council may delegate to the officers the power to manage the affairs of the Corporation.

SECTION VIII COMMITTEES AND POLICIES

8.01 Committees

In addition to the committees required by the Act and Regulations, Council may also from time to time appoint such other committees as it considers desirable to assist it in the management of the affairs of the Corporation.<sup>48</sup>

The Council may adopt Regulations, By-laws, policies and terms of references in relation to the mandate, operations, administration and governance of the committees, provided that such terms of reference are not inconsistent with the Act, the Regulations and the By-laws.

8.02 Policies

The Council may adopt, amend, or repeal by resolution such policies that are not inconsistent with By-laws of the Corporation relating to the management and operation of the Corporation as the Council may deem appropriate from time to time. Any policy adopted by the Council shall continue to have force and effect until amended, repealed, or replaced by a subsequent resolution of the Council.

<sup>48</sup> By-law No. 1, s. 37(1). The rest of section 37 would be moved into a policy.

SECTION IX REMUNERATION, OFFICIALS, AGENTS, AND EMPLOYEES

9.01 Remuneration of Councillors and Others

- (a) No Councillors, whether elected or appointed, shall receive any remuneration from the Corporation for acting as such, but Councillors may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in performing their duties. Nothing herein contained shall preclude any Councillors from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving remuneration therefor.<sup>49</sup>
- (b) Council may authorize or provide for the payment of reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by Councillors and ~~members of the Corporation~~Members in connection with the affairs of the Corporation.<sup>50</sup>

9.02 Officials, Agents, Employees

- (a) An Executive Director may be appointed by Council to have such duties as Council may determine from time to time and to hold office in accordance with the terms of any contract of service with the Corporation approved by Council or in the absence of such contract shall hold office at the pleasure of Council.<sup>51</sup>
- (b) The Council may employ or authorize the Executive Director or other officials of the Corporation to employ such other persons as may be considered necessary or desirable for the carrying out of the operations of the Corporation and the conduct of its affairs.<sup>52</sup>
- (c) The Corporation may enter into contracts of employment with any official appointed by Council providing for such remuneration, such term of employment and such other matters as may be approved by Council and may enter into such contracts of employment with other employees of the Corporation as shall be approved by Council or, if authorized for such purpose by Council, as shall be approved by the Executive Director or by such other official as shall be designated by Council.<sup>53</sup>
- (d) The Executive Director shall be, and other employees and signing officers may be, bonded under fidelity bonds of guarantee companies and in such amounts as may be approved or determined by Council. The cost of all such bonds shall be paid by the Corporation.<sup>54</sup>

SECTION X PROTECTION OF COUNCILLORS AND OTHERS

10.01 Immunity and Indemnity

- (a) Pursuant to the Act, no action or other proceeding for damages shall be instituted against the Corporation, a Councillor, member of a committee of the Corporation or employee or agent of the Corporation for any act done in good faith in the performance or intended performance of a duty or in the exercise or intended exercise of a power under this or any other Act or for any alleged neglect or default in the performance or exercise in good faith of such a duty or power.
- (b) Pursuant to the Act, the Corporation shall indemnify every Councillor, member of a committee of the Corporation or employee or agent of the Corporation for all costs, charges and expenses sustained or incurred by him/her or relating to an action or other proceeding described in subsection (a), but not for any costs, charges and expenses that are caused by the person's own wilful neglect or default.<sup>55</sup>

- (iii) assign, transfer, convey, hypothecate, mortgage, pledge, charge or give security in any manner, upon all or any of the real or personal, moveable or immovable property, rights, powers, choices in action, or other assets, present or future, of the Corporation to secure any such securities or other securities of the Corporation, or any money borrowed or to be borrowed or any obligations or liabilities as aforesaid or otherwise of the Corporation heretofore, now or hereafter made or incurred directly or indirectly, or otherwise.
- (b) From time to time, the Council may authorize any Councillor or other persons of the Corporation to make arrangements with reference to money borrowed or to be borrowed as to the terms and conditions of the loan thereof, and as to the security to be given therefor, with power to vary or modify such arrangements, terms and conditions and to give such additional security as the Council may authorize and generally to manage, transact and settle the borrowing of money by the Corporation.

11.03 Fiscal Year

The fiscal year end of the Corporation shall be the 31st day of December in each year.<sup>61</sup>

11.04 Books of Account

The Corporation shall maintain proper books of account and accounting records with respect to all financial and other transactions of the Corporation and, without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, records of:<sup>62</sup>

- (a) all sums of money received and disbursed by the Corporation and the matters with respect to which receipt and disbursement took place;
- (b) all assets and liabilities of the Corporation; and
- (c) all other transactions affecting the financial position of the Corporation.

11.05 Banking

The banking business of the Corporation shall be transacted at such bank, trust company or other firm or corporation carrying on a banking business in Canada or elsewhere as the Council may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time. The banking business or any part thereof shall be transacted by any two (2) Councillors of the Corporation and/or other persons as the Board may from time to time designate, direct or authorize.

11.06 Auditors

The Members at each annual meeting shall appoint one or more auditors who shall be public accountants to hold office until the next annual meeting and if an appointment is not so made, the auditor in office shall continue in office until a successor is appointed. The Council may fill any casual vacancy in the office of the auditor.<sup>63</sup> [

BY-LAW NO. 5 – ADDITIONAL DESIGNATIONS

By-law No. 5

A By-law relating to the additional designations of the Professional Geoscientists of Ontario as approved by the Council on September 7, 2001 and as amended on June 11, 2014, and June 30th, 2020.

BE IT ENACTED

as a By-law of the Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario (hereinafter called the "Association") as follows:

DESIGNATIONS

1. The following additional designations for non-members are established:

- (a) Honorary Fellow;
- (b) Geoscientist-in-Training; and
- (c) Student.

Formatted: Highlight

HONORARY FELLOW

2. Council may grant the designation of Honorary Fellow to a non-member of the Association who has provided exceptional service to the profession of geoscience.
3. Practising, temporary and limited members of the Association may send written recommendations of potential nominees to the President.
4. The Honorary Fellow Committee shall be formed at the request of Council and shall be composed of the following:
  - (i) three (3) councillors or Honorary Fellows;
  - (ii) three (3) practising members each of whom has been a professional geoscientist for at least five (5) years; and
  - (iii) the executive director (sitting ex-officio).
5. The Honorary Fellow Committee shall submit nominations to Council for consideration.
6. Council may revoke the designation of Honorary Fellow to an individual who has brought discredit on himself or herself or on the geoscience profession, as determined by Council.
7. An Honorary member shall not vote on affairs of the Association, imply or represent that they are a practising, temporary or limited member of the Association, or engage in the practice of professional geoscience.

Commented [PC1]: Changed from Honorary Member to avoid imputation of Member which is defined in the Act.

GEOSCIENTIST-IN-TRAINING

8. A person who submits the application form and application fee as set out in By-law No. 2 to the Registrar shall be admitted to the Association as a geoscientist-in-training if:
  - (a) the applicant is of good character and reputation;
  - (b) the applicant:

- (i) holds an academic credential acceptable to the Registration Committee as set out in the Registration Regulation but does not have the required work experience for registration as a practising, temporary, limited member;
- (ii) is required by the Registration Committee to obtain a period of current work experience in Canada, in a Canadian work environment, or equivalent work experience.

9. No person may remain in the record as a geoscientist-in-training for more than six (6) years.
10. Notwithstanding Section 9, in particular cases, Council may extend the period to not more than eight (8) years.
11. No person shall be admitted as a geoscientist-in-training if at the time of application the person is qualified to be registered as a practising, temporary or limited member.
12. The Council may direct the Registrar to remove the name of a geoscientist-in-training from the register if the Council determines that the geoscientist-in-training has engaged in behaviour that constitutes unprofessional conduct.

STUDENT

13. A person who meets the following requirements and applies to the Registrar for registration shall be enrolled as a studentif:
  - (a) the applicant is of good character and reputation;
  - (b) the applicant is enrolled in a full-time program at a Canadian university or an equivalent program at another institution that is recognized by the Association as leading to a degree in an area of geoscience.
14. The Council may direct the Registrar to remove the name of a student from the register if the Council determines that the student has engaged in behaviour that constitutes unprofessional conduct.

CHANGE OF DESIGNATION

15. An individual who desires to change a designation within the Association shall submit a request in writing to the Registrar.

BY-LAW NO. 8 – ELECTIONS

By-law No.8

A By-law relating to the Conduct of Elections of the Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario as approved by the Council on September 7, 2001 and as amended on October 16, 2001, June 13, 2013, June 11, 2014, June 9, 2016, and June 30th, 2020.

BE IT ENACTED

as a By-law of the Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario (hereinafter called the “Association”) as follows:

NOMINATIONS

1. The executive director shall notify all practising, non-practising, temporary or limited members that nominations may be received for the upcoming election not less than seventy (70) days before the date established by Council for the close of ballots.
2. Only practising, temporary or limited members who are residents of Ontario shall be eligible to be nominated for election to Council.
3. A nominee shall submit to the executive director the following:
  - (a) written consent of the nominee to serve on Council if elected;
  - (b) curriculum vitae;
  - (c) nomination form seconded by five (5) practising, temporary or limited members; and
  - (d) a brief summary of the reasons for wanting to serve.
4. A nomination for election shall be received by the executive director or the Nomination Committee not less than thirty-eight(38) days before the date of the closing of the ballots.
5. In the event that there are no nominations received for any region, Council shall nominate a practising, temporary or limited member from such region.
6. The chair of the Nomination Committee shall provide a slate of nominees to Council for approval not less than thirty (30) days before the date of close of ballots.
7. The Nomination Committee, in selecting nominees, shall give due consideration to the composition of Council as required by the Act, Regulations and By-laws and to the geographical distribution and field(s) of practice of the nominees.
8. A nomination shall be withdrawn upon the receipt of notice of withdrawal by the Nomination Committee, by the death of the nominee, or by the nominee ceasing to be a member of the Association. Upon any withdrawal of a nomination:
  - (a) prior to the preparation of ballots, the name of the withdrawn nominee shall be removed from the ballots;
  - (b) after preparation but before making the ballots available for casting, the name of the withdrawn nominee shall be struck from the ballots and a notice provided by publishing the notice of the withdrawal and striking in the official publication of the Association; and
  - (c) after making the ballots available for casting, the ballots shall be counted in accordance with approved procedure, taking into account the withdrawal.

BALLOTS

9. The executive director shall deliver electronically or by mail to each practising, non-practising, temporary and limited member a ballot with the names of the nominees not less than twenty-eight (28) days before the date of the close of ballots. The election materials shall be sent to the last known postal or email address of the practising, non-practising, temporary or limited member. The ballots shall be accompanied by voting instructions, biographic information on each nominee, and a nominee statement in the format approved.

Commented [PC1]: The meaning and intent, and generally the wording, of sections 1 to 17 of the original By-law #8 have been consolidated with new By-law #1A, as operational matters.

Commented [PC2]: Added.

Commented [PC3]: Non-practising members now will have limited rights, including the right to vote.

VOTING

10. Only practising, non-practising, temporary and limited members shall be eligible to vote.
11. Voting may be conducted electronically by procedures approved by Council or ballots may be mailed. To be valid, mailed ballots shall be enclosed in two envelopes, with the name of the voting practising, non-practising, temporary or limited members shown on the outer envelope and with no identifying marks on the inner envelope. Ballots, either electronic or mailed, shall be received by the Registrar no later than 5:00 p.m. on the closing of ballots date to be set by Council that is no more than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the annual general meeting. The Registrar shall cause the eligibility of each voter to be verified. In the case of mailed ballots, the valid envelopes will be initialled. The initialled ballot envelopes shall be sealed and delivered to the executive director for counting by the appointed scrutineers. In the case of electronic vote, the tallied results will be printed and delivered to the scrutineers by the Registrar.

BALLOT COUNTING SCRUTINEERS

12. The executive director shall appoint three (3) practising, temporary or limited members to be scrutineers not less than ten (10) days prior to the close of ballots. The scrutineers shall not be councillors or nominees for election to Council. The method for counting ballots shall be approved by Council and kept on file by the Association. The scrutineers shall count the votes.
13. The nominee for vice-president receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. In the event that there has been only one (1) person nominated, the nominee shall be elected to that office by acclamation.
14. The nominee for regional councillor in a particular region receiving the greatest number of votes in that region shall be elected. In the event that there has been only one (1) person nominated, the nominee shall be elected to that office by acclamation.
15. The nominee(s) receiving the highest number of votes for the available positions as councillor-at-large shall be elected. In the event that only the required number of persons have been nominated for the number of positions to be elected in a given year as councillors-at-large, such nominees shall be elected to that office acclamation.
16. In the event that a vacancy arises on Council for any reason, the nominee with the next highest number of ballots in the election shall be elected for the completion of the term. If the position was acclaimed, council shall appoint a practising, temporary or limited member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.
17. In the case of an equality of votes, the president, or in the absence of the president, the chair of the Nomination Committee shall cast the deciding vote.

COUNTING OF BALLOTS

18. The scrutineers shall count the ballots and submit a report of the results of the election to the executive director. The executive director shall present the results to the Executive Committee. The president shall announce the results of the election at the annual general meeting. The executive director shall retain the ballots for a period of thirty (30) days following the annual general meeting, after which they shall be destroyed.
19. Prior to the annual meeting, the president or executive director shall inform each candidate of the election result including the number of ballots cast for each candidate.

OBJECTION AND RECOUNT

20. An objection to the results shall be submitted to the executive director by any nominee. If an objection is made within forty-eight (48) hours of the notification of the election results, the executive director shall appoint three (3) new scrutineers who shall be practising, temporary or limited members to conduct a recount of the ballots.
21. Prior to the annual general meeting, the scrutineers shall submit a report of the results to the executive director.
22. In the event of a failure to comply with approved election procedures, Council may validate the results of the election.

Commented [PC4]: The regions of Ontario defined for the purpose of identifying the constituencies of Regional Councillors will be inserted directly into this document.
